GH HOME HACK

COLORFUL GROUT

Here's an easy way to add personality to all-white tile: Make the tile grout pop. Pick a sealer in a bold shade and apply it on top of your existing grout with a thin paintbrush, says Rachel Rothman, GH's chief technologist. (If you're still in the process of installing the tiles, skip this step and buy a colored grout instead.) Go for a chic look with black, or take a more playful approach with a surprising shade like pink!

WHAT WE'RE TESTING

Long-Lasting Lipsticks

It can seem almost impossible to find a lipcolor that won't fade after an hour, get all over your coffee cup or require pro skills to apply. That's why our Beauty Lab experts are putting the top picks to the test to see which bright hues really make good on their promises to last all day. Look for the winners in our annual GH Beauty Awards. Sign up to become a GH tester today at ghtesters.com.

MARCH CELEBRATION

Happy Pi Day!

On March 14 (a.k.a. 3.14), bake a delicious pie (tip: we've got 700+ pie recipes on goodhousekeeping.com) using these helpful hacks.

TOP TOPPERS

We all scream for ice cream, but homemade whip is also a winner! Swap in yogurt, sour cream or mascarpone for half the heavy cream to give yours a tangy taste.

CUTE DECORATIONS

Reroll dough scraps and use a cookie cutter to cut out fun shapes (hearts, stars, you name it) that you can stick onto the top of your pie crust before baking.

NO-COOK CRUST

Crush 14 graham crackers to form fine crumbs. Mix with 6 Tbsp melted butter and press evenly onto the bottom and up the side of a 9-in. pie plate. Refrigerate at least 20 min.
