

01.2021

SPECIAL ISSUE THE YEAR IN PICTURES

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

2020

Photographs From an Unforgettable Year

THE YEAR IN

PICTURES

A SPECIAL ISSUE

FIVE OF OUR PHOTOGRAPHERS REFLECT ON 2020 P. 7
ESSAY: IN A YEAR OF STRIKING IMAGES,
WHY WE COULD NOT LOOK AWAY P. 28

▼ PAGE

49

THE YEAR THAT TESTED US

How much can any of us withstand? Deaths by coronavirus, until morgues are packed. Calls for racial equality, answered with backlash. The Earth scoured by locusts, hurricanes, fires. How much? And then how much more?

▼ PAGE

79

THE YEAR THAT ISOLATED US

A funeral with no mourners. A family visiting through a window. A virtual happy hour. Around the world, billions of people simultaneously experienced aloneness, separated from companions and solace.

▼ PAGE

101

THE YEAR THAT EMPOWERED US

The phrase "I can't breathe" took on multiple meanings, from hospital wards treating gasping COVID-19 patients to street protests where deaths in police hands triggered long-stifled cries for justice.

▼ PAGE

121

THE YEAR THAT HOPE ENDURED

Extraordinary developments occur even during terrible times. Scientists make discoveries, conservationists score victories, social movements spark change. And love, in all its forms, finds a way.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC

VOLUME 239 NUMBER 1